

PRECAUTIONS:

1. The circuit should be connected tightly and with great care.
2. Ammeter reading should be constant for a pair of observations of l_1 and l_2 .
3. The jockey should be pressed gently.
4. The null point should be carefully identified.
5. The balanced length should be recorded with great care.

-0-

